

Things Your Lawyer Never Told You about Contracts

a discussion with Dennis Wong, Esq.

Everyone knows or has heard of someone who has experienced legal difficulties with a contract. What many of us don't realize is that we often enter into contracts every day. Not knowing or understanding what it is that we have agreed to can affect our wallet and our peace-of-mind. If the problem becomes too big, we often hire an attorney and hope that he/she can solve our problems. We are often not happy with the results because we fail to recognize how the problem was created in the first place.

Whether you are experienced in contracts or a novice, it is important to understand the possibilities and consequences when entering into contracts. Learn the things that your lawyer never told you about contracts so you can protect your wallet, have peace-of-mind, and focus on what you do best – making money.
